Yeringberg

- Jim Hurley explained the importance of the Yeringberg Horse Trials to NMZ as a major source of income
- More help needed to prepare xc at Yeringberg as unfair that Jim Hurley & Jim Page shoulder the major load of the work
- Committee needs to be formed to oversee preparation for Yeringberg annual horse trials and for state championships, Clubs asked to take this back to their Committees....Suggested that each Club nominate a representative for this Committee
- EA very supportive of the Yeringberg Horse Trials as they provide excellent training
- Grade 3 Pony Club class was full but Grade 1 & 2 would have liked more entries
- XC Jump Judges were terrific this year.
- Lilydale, Seville & Wyena all intend purchasing dressage rings which hopefully can be made available for Yeringberg
- Thank you to Saddle Up for their continued sponsorship of Yeringberg Horse Trials
- Kathy Woodman congratulated the NMZ Committee on the running of Yeringberg Horse Trials
- Jim Page thanked the 14 Clubs that attended the Yeringberg Working Bees and expressed his disappointment in the other 5 Clubs that had not offered any help.
- Taking of photos at Yeringberg queried.....meeting informed that Yeringberg had an official photographer and that others had been asked to leave
- NEXT WORKING BEE AT YERINGBERG FOR TEAMS HORSE TRIALS PREPARATION SATURDAY 7TH MAY 9AM
- Jayne Dilley advised that the Wyena Directory was available for pick up at this meeting
